Risk Warnings

Omni's investment strategies are speculative and entail substantial risks and should not constitute the sole or main investments in any investor's portfolio. The investments may be subject to sudden and large falls in price or value and there could be a large loss on realisation which could equal the amount invested. Investors may not get back the entire amount originally invested. As there is no recognised market for the shares in the investments managed by Omni, it may be difficult for an investor to sell or realise the shares or to obtain reliable information about their value or the extent of the risks to which they are exposed. Changes in rates of exchange may have an adverse effect on the value, price or income of the shares in the investments.

Past performance or experience is no guarantee of future performance. References to future returns are not promises or even estimates of actual returns an investor may achieve. The forecasts contained in this website are for illustrative purposes only and are not to be relied upon as advice or interpreted as a recommendation.

Prospective investors should review the relevant investment documents carefully and in its entirety and consult with their legal, tax and financial advisers in relation to the legal, tax, financial or other consequences of an investment. Viewers of this website are reminded that any such application for shares may be made solely on the basis of the information and opinions contained in the relevant investment documentation relating thereto, which may be different from the information and opinions contained in this website.

Nothing on this website constitutes investment, legal, tax or other advice nor should it be relied upon in making an investment decision.

Omni does not undertake any responsibility for any reliance which is placed by any person on the information or opinions contained in this website. Any person who acts upon the information or opinions contained in this website or changes their investment position in reliance on this information does so entirely at their own risk.
